From Fr. Terry

It feels great to be back from Ireland. My mom and I had such a blessed trip. My faith was reinvigorated during my stay in Ireland. Ireland is a traditionally Catholic country. The Catholic Faith takes center stage. Catholic churches abound and religious statues (especially Our Lady) are found on public property. The Church runs the school system, so the Faith is taught in school. Also, abortion is illegal.

I celebrated Mass at my great grandfather's home parish, Sts. Stephen & John in Castleisland, Co. Kerry. It was amazing. Cheers erupted when I told them my connection. I also found Our Lady of Knock, where the Blessed Virgin appeared on August 21, 1879, to be so prayerful and peaceful. Lastly, my mom and I climbed Crough Patrick which is the mountain where St. Patrick fasted for forty days and forty nights. I said Mass at the top of the mountain. I felt like I was on the top of the world (I almost was). Please know that I remembered all of you in my prayers during my journey to Ireland.

This Sunday we welcome and congratulate the Class of 2008 with our Baccalaureate Mass at Good Samaritan at 8:30 a.m. May God guide and protect our graduates.

We also congratulate Fr. Joseph Dascenzo who celebrates his 50th Anniversary of Priesthood this Sunday with a Mass of thanksgiving at Holy Redeemer, Ellwood City, at 2:30 p.m. Fr. Dascenzo served as pastor at St. John's for 13 years. May God bless Fr. Dascenzo.

I am pleased to announce that our much needed new church roof at Good Samaritan is currently being completed. (Approx. Cost: $130,000).

Messages of Our Lady of Fatima

From May through October, 1917, The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. One of her requests was that we pray a daily Rosary for peace. She promised to assist at the hour of death with all the graces necessary for salvation, for all those who fulfill the First Saturday Devotions. If you wish to learn how to comply with Our Lady's requests, or to learn more about the messages of Our Lady of Fatima, we invite you to join us on Sat., June 7, at St. John the Baptist, Baden, for Mass at 9 a.m. (Confessions: 8:30 a.m.) A brief meeting and continental breakfast will follow. Please refer questions to Colleen, 724-375-3846.
